TURNING 30 . . . This year, Christ Community is Turning 30!

In fact, our first Sunday morning service was held on March 5, 1989. Throughout 2019, we'll be hosting events that look back on God's faithfulness to us and look forward to where He might be leading us together. Stay tuned!

CHURCH-WIDE EVENTS

Four Chapter Gallery Exhibition

(Downtown Campus) Friday, March 1, 5:30-9:00pm
Cross & Resurrection is a collection of artwork created by Christos Collective. It focuses on new life, self-sacrifice, and eternal redemption. Christos Collective is an international artists and scholars community that empowers contemporary Christian visual art to promote a greater understanding of a Christian worldview. More at FourChapter.gallery

Golgotha Experience (Brookside Campus)

Friday, March 29, 7:00-8:30pm

The Golgotha Experience is comprised of songs, powerful visuals, guided prayer, and Scripture that build upon the beautiful history surrounding the "Stations of the Cross" tradition, with a goal of helping people draw nearer to Jesus during the lenten season. Register at ChristCommunityKC.org/golgotha

Church-Wide Baptism Celebration

(Brookside Campus) Sunday, March 31, 4:00-5:15pm
 Come celebrate the baptism of individuals in our church family. Bring a dozen, nut-free cookies to enjoy together after the service. If you are interested in being baptized, contact a pastor at your campus.

OLATHE CAMPUS EVENTS

Practicing Hospitality--Potluck Dinner

(Student Center)

Sunday, March 24, 5:15-7:00pm
 Whether you are experienced at knowing and loving your neighbors or you don't know how, come learn about the lost practice of hospitality. Hear from others and collaborate together on how we can improve in loving those around us. Limited childcare for ages 0-5. Main dish provided; bring a side or dessert. Register at ChristCommunityKC.org/hospitality

FOR ADULTS

Men's Book Study

(Various times and locations)

Beginning the week of March 18
