

IN THE CITY FOR THE CITY

Selected Opportunities in Kansas City from June 3 – June 23, 2019
For young and emerging leaders

Gain practical theological training :: Interact with key city leaders :: Receive tools and resources
Grow as a communicator of the gospel

In the City for the City is a city-immersion experience focusing on the gospel transformation of the urban core. Join us in pursuing ministry frontiers, meeting real needs, and growing as disciple-making leaders. We equip participants for a lifetime of ministry in their city, their workplace, and their neighborhood.

Registration Deadline: May 29th

Cost: $100

Welcome, Introductions and Prayer: June 3, 6pm – 8:30pm

Full Orientation (optional but encouraged):
June 4 – J6, 9am – 4pm. We'll lay theological foundations for our time together while also learning practical tools for engaging our communities with the gospel.

First Fridays: June 7, 6pm – 9pm. As the Crossroads Art District hosts thousands of visitors for gallery shows, street performers, food trucks and more, we'll join in and intersect art with the gospel – and have fun doing it!

LIFE IN THE CITY

Story of the Soul: June 16, 10:30am – 12:30pm. Story Of The Soul is an interactive coffeehouse experience. Using art, film, music, and poetry we explore stories the soul of mankind is and has always been telling.

City Leadership Experience: June 4, 6, 11, 14, 18, 20, 7pm – 8:30pm. This leadership development course calls leaders to collaboration, missional living, and changing the world by experiencing the best and worst of the city.

Voices Unsilenced: June 12, 7pm – 8:30pm. Listen as city leaders share their burdens regarding well-being issues like fatherlessness, sex trafficking, education, and racial healing in the urban core.

Men's & Women's Night (optional but encouraged): June 14, 6pm-10pm. A fun evening exploring some of the unique joys and challenges we share as men and women.

Royals Game & tailgate: June 22, 5:30pm- 9:00pm, Royals vs. Twins

In the City Banquet: June 23, 6pm – 8:30pm. Celebrate our time together over a good meal and short program.

In the City for the City is a ministry of Church Movements, Cru. We focus on developing, mobilizing and connecting leaders who collaborate with other leaders in seeking the good of their city.
